

Property Solicitor 2PQE

We have an excellent opportunity for someone genuinely interested in growing their career in Property law.

At Saunders Robinson Brown our vision is to help all our people be their best. Your future is our focus.

How we support our people to be their best:

We place our people and their wellbeing at the heart of all our workplace programmes.

We offer:

- Responsible Person Programme
- Mentorship
- Buddy system
- Inclusive and diverse culture
- Young Professionals Group
- Personal brand and professional development
- Wellbeing programme
- Regular social events
- 10 days immediate sick leave

About the role:

Due to strong growth in our Property practice, we are looking for a lawyer with 2 plus years of experience in Property law.

As a member of our Property team, you will receive excellent training and mentoring from top Property lawyers. We offer interesting and challenging work with a broad range of clients including individuals, small and medium sized businesses, property developers and farming clients. You will be involved with a variety of property transactions, including residential conveyancing, financing arrangements, subdivisions and general property matters.

We have an inclusive, respectful, and friendly culture; a supportive and collaborative environment; and strong mentoring and support networks to progress your career.

We work from modern riverside offices with ample parking, hospitality venues and opportunities to explore the central city.

Skills and experience required:

- 2 plus years of experience in Property law
- Strong academic record
- Genuine interest in Property law
- Strong time management skills
- Attention to detail
- A quality focus
- Excellent interpersonal skills
- Excellent communication skills
